

Desha Dickson

desha.dickson@unitedwayhp.org

Desha Dickson is the Vice President of Community Impact with the United Way of Greater High Point. Her primary role is to be the point of contact and relationship manager for the partner agencies. In addition, she coordinates the annual allocation process.

Desha is originally from the Philadelphia, Pa area. Prior to NC, she worked very closely with nonprofits that received Federal, State and Local funding. She assisted the organizations to remain compliant with funding sources. She provided technical assistance with funding applications, board development and management, staff recruitment, and funds management.

Desha attended West Chester University of Pennsylvania (B.A. Psychology) and Eastern University (M.S. Nonprofit Management).

She is married and enjoys reading, traveling, shopping and cooking.